3 dear Sir,

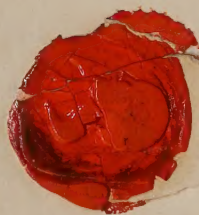

May I, without impropriety, beg to inform you for Mr. Pemberton, who is to come out at Covent Garden on Monday at Virginia? He is a very extraordinary person; & I trust, with indulgence, will be able to show himself so on the stage. I met with him at Hereford; & I believe it is in consequence of the opinion I formed of him there that he is at present allowed to appear. That opinion was expressed in the New Monthly Magazine, & is referred to in this day's number. I am obliged to leave town on Tuesday this day, & cannot see him; - if you will be so indulgent to him as justice will allow, you will really oblige,

Yours very truly,
J. N. Talfourd.
